Acts of God, fires, catastrophic floods, catastrophic storm, pandemics, epidemics, catastrophic failure of equipment essential to make or use Goods or provide Services, war, terrorism or other cause(s), in each case that are beyond the reasonable control of a Party, not reasonably foreseeable, not caused by acts or omissions of the Party affected and that could not reasonably have been avoided through a work-around plan, and which prevent Supplier from providing or procuring the Goods and/or Services, Avient from receiving or using Goods and/or Services or either Party from performing its obligations under this Agreement ("Force Majeure"), will suspend the affected Party's obligations under this Agreement during the period required to remove such Force Majeure. The affected Party will promptly notify the other Party promptly of the occurrence of the Force Majeure, its cause, and the affected Party's action plan to cure the Force Majeure. If the affected Party is Supplier, then Avient, upon notice of the Force Majeure may purchase substitute Services or Goods from other suppliers in which case the obligations of Avient and Supplier under this Agreement, if any will be reduced or suspended accordingly. Supplier acknowledges that in such event Avient may have to arrange for a supply of substitute Goods for a period of time exceeding the duration of Supplier's Force Majeure in order to obtain such substitute Goods, and Avient's purchases under such arrangement even after the termination of the Force Majeure shall not constitute a breach of Avient's obligations hereunder. If the affected

Avient Terms and Conditions of Purchase for Goods and/or Services

Party is Supplier and the period of the Force Majeure lasts longer than fifteen (15) calendar days, then Avient may, at any time thereafter, while such Force Majeure continues, terminate this Agreement without penalty, liability or further obligation therefore or hereunder, immediately upon notice to the Supplier. If the affected Party is Supplier, then during the continuance of the Force Majeure, Supplier will distribute its available Goods to Avient and Supplier's other customers and internal uses so that the percentage reduction in Supplier's availability of Goods to Avient is no less than the overall percentage reduction in the total quantity of Goods that Supplier is able to supply as a result of the Force Majeure.

15. Confidentiality

Any and all information provided by or on behalf of Avient shall be treated as confidential and shall only be used by Supplier for the purpose of this Agreement. Supplier or its employees will sign a confidentiality agreement, at Avient's request. In the event that the Parties have an active Confidential Disclosure Agreement ("CDA") in place at the time of entering into the Agreement, disclosures of confidential information under the Agreement shall be governed by the CDA.

Any authorized use shall be strictly in accordance with the instructions and for the purposes specified.

16.2 Supplier expressly warrants that it has the right to grant Avient the relevant intellectual property license(s). Supplier holds any and all licenses, permits, end-user statements and any other documents, which are required in the country of origin, of transit and of destination to perform its obligations and will immediately notify Avient of any legal restrictions. Supplier further warrants that the Goods and/or Services, alone or in combination, will not result in or give rise to any infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property right of a third party.

Should the Goods delivered by Supplier hereunder become, or in Avient's reasonable opinion be likely to become, the subject of a claim of infringement of any patent, trademark, copyright, or other intellectual property right, then Supplier shall, at Avient's option: (i) procure for Avient the right to use the goods free of any liability for infringement, (ii) replace such goods with non-infringing substitutes or modify such goods to be non-infringing, or (iii) refund Avient's purchase price and accept the return of such Goods.

Supplier shall co-operate in the execution of any formalities necessary to effectuate the transfer of the ownership of such intellectual property rights.

Intellectual property rights to software not developed explicitly for Avient or on Avient's instructions shall remain with Supplier and Supplier shall grant Avient a non-exclusive, non-transferable, irrevocable, perpetual and royalty free license not limited to specific equipment or location. Avient is allowed to provide sub-licenses to other Avient Affiliates.

17. Insurance

Supplier shall maintain insurance adequate to cover the risks resulting from or connected with the Agreement. Upon the request of Avient, Supplier shall deliver promptly to Avient certificates of insurance made out by the applicable insurer(s) or their authorized agents for the insurance required under this Section (the "Required Insurance") and for any material policy amendments thereto. Each policy shall provide for thirty (30) days' prior written notice to be given by insurer to Avient in the event of any termination, non-renewal or cancellation, or any material change in coverage or deductibles. All Required Insurance shall insure the interests of Avient regardless of any breach or violation by Supplier or any other person. All Required Insurance must be primary and be required to respond and pay prior to any other available coverage. Supplier, Supplier's insurer(s) and anyone claiming by, through, under or on Supplier's behalf shall have no claim, right of action or right of subrogation against Avient or its customers based on any loss or liability insured against under the Required Insurance. This Section shall not imply or impose any limitation upon the amounts that may be claimed by Avient. All required Insurance shall be carried with responsible insurance companies of recognized standing which are authorized to do business in the state in which the Services are rendered and are rated B+ VII or better by A.M. Best. If Supplier fails to procure or maintain the Required Insurance, Avient shall have the right, but not the obligation, to effect such insurance at Supplier's expense.

18. Termination and suspension

18.1 Avient is entitled to suspend the performance of its obligations in whole or in part or terminate the Agreement with immediate effect, without prejudice to its right to claim damages and without any compensation to or indemnification of Supplier (i) in case Supplier has been declared bankrupt, is in a state of liquidation, has ceased or suspended whole or substantial part of its business, is subject of a court order or preventative legal scheme of settlement (ii) in case of non-compliance with clause 12 including but not limited to, the Avient Supplier Code of Conduct, import, export or chemical control regulations, anti-bribery laws, privacy laws or the provisions of safety, health, environment and security (iii) in case of not approved changes in accordance with clause 10; (iv) failure to make timely progress, nonperformance, or breach by Supplier of the Agreement; and (v) for convenience by written notice to the Supplier in which latter case Avient and Supplier shall negotiate reasonable termination charges limited to Supplier's direct costs of materials and labor incurred to the date of termination. After such termination, Avient may return received Goods in whole or in part against repayment and retransfer of ownership therein to Supplier. In the event of termination for cause, Avient shall not be liable to Supplier for any amount, and Supplier shall be liable to Avient for any and all damages sustained by reason of the default which gave rise to the termination.

Avient Terms and Conditions of Purchase for Goods and/or Services

18.2 Upon termination, Supplier will return all Data and all other information belonging to or provided by Avient to Supplier and all copies of such Data and information to Avient forthwith, including, but not limited to any and all information under clause 15, or, at the written instruction of Avient, will destroy all such Data and information together with any and all copies of all such Data and information and certify in writing to Avient thereof.

19. Independent Contractor

This Agreement does not evidence or constitute a joint venture or partnership between the parties. Supplier is not an employee of Avient, and will not be entitled to any of the benefits accorded Avient employees. Avient does not agree to use Supplier exclusively. Supplier shall be responsible for and shall indemnify Avient against all liability and loss in connection with payment of all taxes incident to its performance of this Agreement.

20. Miscellaneous

20.1 If any provision(s) of these Terms of Purchase should be or become ineffective or invalid, the other provisions will not be affected thereby. The Parties agree to replace the ineffective or invalid provision(s) by a provision of similar importance, which reflects as closely as possible the intent of the original clause.

20.2 Failure by either Party to require strict performance by the other Party of any obligation hereunder shall in no way affect its right thereafter to enforce any obligation, nor shall a waiver by either party of any breach be held to be a waiver of any previous or later breach. No waiver will have any effect unless specific, irrevocable and in writing.

20.3 Supplier shall not assign or transfer the Agreement in whole or in part without Avient's prior written consent. Such consent shall not relieve Supplier from, and shall be subject to compliance with, any of the obligations under the Agreement. Avient is entitled to assign or transfer the Agreement or any part thereof to any Avient Affiliate upon notice to Supplier.

20.4 The Parties shall comply with all applicable laws, treaties, conventions, directives, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, writs, judgments, injunctions or decrees of any governmental authority having jurisdiction ("Laws") pertaining to the fulfillment of the Agreement; provided that The UN Convention respecting Contracts for International Sale of Goods (CISG) shall not apply to transactions under this Agreement. Generally, the law of the State of Ohio, U.S.A., shall control the interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement, excepting the provisions of Ohio law respecting conflict of law, and provided that for matters relating specifically to or arising out of a specific delivery of Goods or performance of Services hereunder:
