

GEORGE INGLIS

Vice President, Global Controller and Tax

George Inglis is Vice President, Global Controller and Tax at Avient Corporation, an innovator of materials solutions that help customers succeed while enabling a sustainable world. Mr. Inglis is responsible for leading the global accounting and tax teams, overseeing both internal and SEC reporting requirements, along with global tax strategy and compliance to support the operational and legal requirements of the company.

Mr. Inglis has served in Finance leadership roles since joining the company in 2011 from Ernst & Young. These include positions in Assistant Corporate Controller; an ex-pat assignment in the UK supporting Avient's Color business; Director of Finance for the Color, Additives & Inks segment; and, most recently, as Vice President of Internal Audit.

Mr. Inglis has taken on numerous special assignments in his tenure, including supporting Avient's speciality transformation through M&A activity as well as establishing Avient's Global Business Services (GBS). Mr. Inglis holds a Bachelor's in Accounting and Finance from Ohio University and is a Certified Public Accountant.