

GIUSEPPE DI SALVO

Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Giuseppe “Joe” Di Salvo is Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Avient Corporation, an innovator of materials solutions that help customers succeed while enabling a sustainable world. He has global responsibility for the Finance function, including financial planning and analysis, controllership, treasury, tax, internal audit, and investor relations.

Mr. Di Salvo joined Avient in 2011 as Assistant Controller and later served as Director, Finance for the company’s Global Color, Additives & Inks business segment. He was then promoted to Vice President, Corporate Controller, and most recently served as Vice President, Treasurer and Investor Relations, which included responsibility for the company’s financial planning and analysis function, as well as leadership and involvement in the company’s mergers and acquisitions activities.

Prior to joining Avient, Mr. Di Salvo worked at Deloitte for 10 years as a certified public accountant, leading audit teams and advising clients on SEC and technical accounting matters. He has a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration with a concentration in accounting from The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio.